

Local Injection Controller

The Consolidator 8/4 directly monitors the pressure transmitter and the turbine flow transmitter inputs and automatically modulates the the control valve accordingly, thereby controlling flow while providing an override on pressure. The unit can also control on pressure and override on flow.

